From the National Intelligencer

THE RECENT ELECTIONS.

There is a deep significance in the result of the recent elections that should not be lost upon the people. It means more than appears upon the surface. When, in the elections of last year, under the whip and spur of Republican party leaders, the vociferous cry of "prevent the rebels from seizing upon the Government," the appeal to blind humanity to help the poor negro, the use of power and influence and public money to an alarming and incredible extent, Republican victories were achieved in the various States of the North and West, the result was claimed by the Radical leaders as an endorsement of their negro suffrage propositions brought forward in Congress, but never formally presented to the people. Upon the re-assembling of Congress this was the chief argument employed to enforce obedience to the dictates of the Radical chieftains on the part of all "weak-kneed" Republicans. They were told that the people had declared in favor of negro suffrage, and the Congressional outline of a plan of reconstruction, and they must obey the will of the people.

Since then the reconstruction measures of Congress, the question of impeachment, and the extension of negro suffrage to all the States, have been presented in a practical shape. These were the living issues in the recent elections. Upon these the fight was made in all the States in which elections have been held. Upon these issues, thus practically and tangibly presented for an expression of popular opinion, the people have spoken in thunder tones in Connecticut and California, in Maine and New Jersey, in Pennsylvania and Ohio, in Indiana and Iowa. Wherever elections have been held the result has been a popular condemnation of all the measures of the Radical leaders, in the face of an army of officeholders and an inexhaustible money-chest, with which it was attempted to intimidate or bribe the people to sustain the Radical programme.

New York and the other States yet to hold elections this year will undoubtedly follow in the footsteps of their illustrious predecessors. This revolution has been one of the grandest ever witnessed. It is one of the proudest vindications of the American theory of government ever conceived. Executives may fail to do their duty; Congresses may become corrupt, and attempt to subvert the Constitution, and erect oligarchical dynasties, but the "wrongs of society and the abuses of government will themselves educate their own avengers," and though slow to be moved, the people are at last aroused to the necessity of reuniting to themselves the power that a corrupt Congress was attempting to wrest from them. They have risen in their might to arrest and rebuke their recreant and arrogant servants in the career of infamy into which they had thrown themselves headlong.

It remains to be seen if this lesson will have its due effect upon the reckless bullies of Congress, who were a little while ago resolved to push on to the attainment of their will and dangerous purposes at all hazards. If the result of the elections in 1866 was to be taken as an endorsement of the faintly foreshadowed purposes of Congress, the result of the elections of 1867 must be accepted as an utter condemnation of these purposes since they have been given shape and form and substance.

From the New York World.

PENNSYLVANIA—OHIO—NEW YORK.

The news from Pennsylvania which we published yesterday confirmed our expectations; that which we publish this morning from Ohio fills the measure of our hopes. The people of both these States have cast the majority of their votes for the candidate of the Democracy. So say our latest despatches from Ohio, and they cannot be far wrong. At the worst our victory is all but overwhelming. Beyond all question, too, will the people of the Empire State in November roll up a majority, doubling, yes, trebling, their joint majorities. Six millions of people have spoken. To these the four millions of New York will join their voice, and this is their response to Maine and California:

"So Jura answers from her lofty peaks
Back to the joyous Alps, who call on her aloud."

New York, Pennsylvania, and Ohio; the first the Empire State, and the second and third of all the States of the Union; the three most wealthy, populous, and intelligent of all; the foremost three in all the arts and victories of peace, and weightiest in war; the annual products of whose industry is double that of any other three and more various; whose garnered wealth surpasses that of any six of their sister States; whose commerce on our inland seas and upon all oceans surpasses the commerce of all—it is these three States which now are thundering, with the voice of their ten millions of people, an indignant, unanimous veto upon the proceedings and the policy of the party in power.

It is high time for a voice so potent to make itself heard. Our sons were led by thousands to fruitless slaughter,—yet it was dumb. Heaping up, to mortgage the industry and abridge the joys of ourselves and our children and our children's children, rose a mountain of debt—yet it was dumb. Two years of peace, which failed to restore the Union, were added to the four years of war which failed, and, like those years, were spent by shameless partisans in plans to prolong their hold upon power they had usurped—power prostituted to the stirring up anew of strife which had ended; prostituted to the imposition of a military despotism upon ten sovereign States; prostituted to the crushing down of an already conquered people,—our brethren, our kinsmen—and to the lifting up into sole supremacy there of an ignorant, degraded race; prostituted to the crippling of Northern industry by reckless taxes and monstrous "protective" tariffs, and to the throttling of Southern industry by the denial of order and law under which it might ere this have well revived; prostituted to the denial of any Reconstruction laws for months, and then to the framing of such as would longest postpone their pretended purpose, and then to the heaping of obstructions, restrictions, and penalties upon these,—yet still it was dumb.

Long suffering and patient, indeed, with their servants have the Northern people been. High time indeed was it that the puissant voice of these their masters should be heard; saying, as Pennsylvania and Ohio have said, and New York will say:—Let Strife cease; Let Peace prevail; Let Law revive; Let the Union live.

WHAT IT MEANS.

To the Radicals, the elections in Ohio, Pennsylvania and elsewhere, is the hand-writing upon the wall, which reads:—"Thou art weighed in the balance and found wanting." You have had supreme power for six years, and you have so multiplied corruption and fanaticism and crime in high places and low places, that the majority can and will no longer trust you.

To the Democrats, it is significant of the future, in the sober, second thought, which is the only hope of Republics, and which sooner or later arrests the wrong doer. We must remember that our ranks are being recruited from that class of Republicans who have become offended with the speculations of years past, who are disgusted with the attempt to give the ballot to the negro, who feel outraged with the disfranchisement of thousands of white men, and who will no loner tolerate disunion and disorder for the sake of party. As we sow, so shall we reap. If, with us, country, Government, Constitutional Liberty, capacity and integrity are uppermost, no power on earth can prevent the overthrow of the Destructives, who for so many years have deceived the people and controlled the Government. Therefore let us look to our nominations and our platforms, and stand fast in the faith of the fathers. The nearer we get to them the nearer we shall be to the principles of free Government.

To the Country at Large, its commerce, its trade, its general business, its credit and its good name, the elections are full of hope. Give to the Conservative men of the country power again, and they will hasten the day of specie payments, of stable trade, and assure the revival of good feeling among all classes and conditions of people.

The Southern People can see in these elections reasons for patience, hope, and faith in the future. The moral sense of the thoughtful men is shocked by the spectacle of placing the Ballot into the hands of seven hundred and fifty thousand ignorant negroes, the great body of them slaves, but two or three years since. The same moral sense is also shocked by the spectacle of taking the Ballot from tens of thousands of white men in one third of the States and making them even the inferiors, politically, of those who so recently were their slaves.

All honor to Connecticut for her town elections; to Pennsylvania for an honest, faithful, capable, constitutional Judiciary; to Ohio for the manly stand of her people in behalf of the Anglo-Saxon race; to Indiana and Iowa, for the splendid gains of the people in the cause of Truth and Justice, wherever they have had the opportunity to speak. California and Maine, Stars of the East and West, have found a reflection of undimmed glory along the Alleghanies and East of the Rocky Mountains.—New York speaks next, and if Excelsior is her true motto, let her prove that, though many have done well, she will excel them all.—*N. LIFE

INSURANCE COMPANY.

New Features and Advantages Which are Known as Belonging to no Other Company in the United States.

THE MANAGEMENT OF THIS COMPANY IS upon the Mutual Benefit System—the accumulated profits going to the assured.

This company makes a special deposit with the Insurance Department of the State, for which Registered policies are issued if desired, countersigned by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of the State of New York, certifying that such policies are secured by pledge of public stocks.

No other Company gives the assured a guarantee of this character or anything equivalent.

Thirty days' of grace are allowed on all renewal premiums, and the policy remains valid and in full force during that time.

No restrictions as to travel or residence abroad at any season of the year, outside the tropics, which gives a nearly world-wide and unconditional policy.

No higher rate of premium charged for stationary Engineers, Conductors, Baggage Masters, Mail Agents, nor in consequence of change of employment after the policy is issued.

Notes are not required by this Company, but a loan may be obtained on the policy for one third of the annual premium, which is cancelled by the profits applied as dividends.

Joint policies, including man and wife, are issued by this Company, and the amount insured is payable to the survivor on the death of either.

Our dividend, January 1st, 1866, was 45 per cent.

Dividends are declared annually, and paid on settlement of 4th. Annual Premium, on all our plans upon the full amount of premiums received.

Premiums may be paid annually, semi-annually or quarterly.

All policies issued by this Company are non-forfeiting, after two, in some instances, and three annual payments in others.

The per centage of premium receipts in 1865, over 1864, was 251 per cent; which is nearly double that or any other New York company.

Policies incontestable from any cause except on account of fraud.

For insurance in this Company apply to Agent for State of North Carolina, Wilmington.

"ÆTNA"

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

ASSETS $7,000,000.

THIS COMPANY ISSUES TEN YEAR NON-FORFEITING ENDOWMENT POLICIES, contracting to pay the amount insured at death or the specified time.

An endowment policy presents the double attraction of providing for one's family or other dependents in case he should be cut off before a specified age, or of securing to himself independence, in case he attains the age. Thus insuring for ten years, a note for one half of the cost will be taken by paying six per cent interest.

This plan gives, in addition to all the advantages of life insurance, a safe and convenient INVESTMENT for one's savings, till they have accumulated to a definite amount; which he receives in one sum at the specified time,

WM. B. PELL, | SEATON GALES, EDITORS.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 15, 1867.

"I warn you, my friends, to note the fact that these triumphs, whatever they may be, are no party triumphs. The people have risen in their majesty, with a consciousness of their power, and, disregarding party lines and party aspirations, have been silently considering what belongs to them, their children, and their country. I think the great battle has been fought and won. If the results are significant in nothing else, they are in this—that the white race—our race—the German, Italian, French, Irish, Scotch and the Anglo-Saxon people—are still to be the controlling power on this continent."—Speech of Ex President Pierce at Concord, N. H., on the night of the 9th inst., in reply to the Serenaders.

The above declarations of Ex-President Pierce, explanatory of the recent re-action, do great credit to his head and heart. They accord with the general sentiment at the North, whether expressed by old Democrats or old Whigs. Hon. John Quincy Adams, in accepting the nomination for Governor of Massachusetts, from the Democratic party, recognizes the fact that Conservative men of the North are co-operating with the existing Democratic party of the North, to restore the Union and the Constitution.—And it is palpable, that, for the accomplishment of this great end, all mere partizanship is laid aside.

The day has passed by, when the intelligence and virtue of the country can longer higgle or quarrel over party names. The country itself is to be saved from overthrow by partizan hands. The Constitution and the Union are to be rescued from the taint and poison and ruin of party domination and political trickery, and the agency of the Democratic organization of the North is to effect it. Men of all previous party prejudices and party names in the North, who are really Conservative, i. e. who are for preserving the Constitution and the Union—who are for preserving the old government intact in all that is essential to its original frame work, in all that promotes and protects Constitutional liberty,—will rally to the support of that organization, in order to effect it.

All old prejudices, old party differences and unpleasant party recollections are to be laid aside among them, and are being laid aside, and the people, the great masses, are coalescing, oblivions of old party names, to effect that great object. The Democratic organization is acting wisely in constructing its platforms so as to render this coalescence easy and pleasant. Where it is palpable that Conservative men, not heretofore Democrats, are all right, they embrace [illegible] in the country, bent upon the restoration of the Union and Constitution, on such principles as will render the Union harmonious and a mutual benefit and protection to all sections and classes.

No sound man, who reveres the Constitution and desires the restoration of the concord and harmony of the Union, whether old Whig or old Democrat, can find a word in the late platform, put forth by the Democratic party of New York, to object to. The principles laid down are fundamental to liberty and are essential to the integrity and the virtue of the Republic. We endorse sound, correct fundamental principle, no matter where it comes from or by whom supported. We find no such teachings in the platforms of the Republican or Radical party—no such firm adhesion to the fundamental doctrines of the fathers—no such safe, conservative foundations laid by that party for the future hope of the Republic.

Unrecognised as the Southern people are by the Congress or the Radical party, our people,—that is the Conservative masses—the true friends of a restored Union on the basis of the Constitution,—while they are in full sympathy with the reactionary movements of the North, cannot, without subjecting themselves to abuse and threats, if not actual injury, from the dominant party, inaugurate strictly partizan machinery to counteract Radicalism in the South. The organization of the Radical party in the South fully justifies a counter party, yet the excessive anxiety of our people to improve their pecuniary condition and to avoid political excitement seem to warrant delay to the last point of forbearance. The Conservative movement in the State, therefore, while it avoids partizan machinery and party tests and pledges, further than arises from the spontaneous impulses of every Conservative mind and heart, was timely in its inauguration. It was neither premature nor hasty. It will roll on until the State is rescued from Radical and ruinous hands.

It is well known that the aggregate vote cast against the Radicals in the two States of Pennsylvania and Ohio, at the late election, is nearly, if not quite, 600,000. In this number are embraced thousands upon thousands of the soldiers who fought the battles of the Union. And yet there are presses and persons at the South, who were among the most violent and active promoters of the war, who speak of the triumphs as "rebel" victories. Could brazen-faced impudence and effrontery go further? This is the manner in which every demonstration against the Radical party is to be regarded.

C. H. Mordes, the Radical nominee for the Convention in Rowan, denies the statement of the Hon. John Baxter, that he was once a secessionist. He takes occasion, also, to declare that he is opposed to confiscation and to the colored people holding office. He has evidently taken that third degree, which is so carefully withheld from the negroes!

THE MASS MEETING.

At the recent meeting of the Conservatives in this city, which called the Mass Meeting, no Committee was appointed to make the necessary arrangements for the meeting.—Gentlemen actively interested in the meeting afterwards requested the Editors of the Sentinel to issue handbills calling the meeting, to be sent throughout the County, and the names of gentlemen were mentioned, who should be requested to address the meeting, and we were requested to address a letter to those gentlemen, inviting them to attend. With their request we complied. Letters couched in the same language were accordingly addressed to Gov. Graham, Gov. Vance, Gov. Bragg, B. F. Moore, Esq., Judge Merrimon, Judge Howard, Hon. Josiah Turner Jr., Col. Robert Strange and Hon. C. C. Clark. Knowing that all these gentlemen were actively engaged in their profession, we thought it best to invite a number sufficiently large, so as to secure several of them. In each note, the substance of the following remark was inserted: "We do not discuss the question of "Convention" or "No Convention," preferring to leave that matter to the judgment of every voter." This remark was inserted, for the reason, that, not knowing the views of each gentleman upon that point, we deemed it advisable, in advance, to advertise them that it was preferred that that question should not be discussed at that meeting. The object was by no means to prevent gentlemen from expressing their honest convictions or opinions, but simply to guard against the discussion of a question, about which Conservatives might honestly differ.

On the occasion of the meeting we had then received only very brief replies from Gov. Graham, Gov. Vance, B. F. Moore, Esq. and Hon. C. C. Clark, stating that they could not be present, and verbal promises from Gov. Bragg and Judge Merrimon, that they would endeavor to be present and address the meeting. The anxiety of many persons to hear from Gov. Vance led us to telegraph on Thursday, urging him to come. We received a reply that evening, that he would be here on Saturday, if possible. We are yet unadvised of the causes which prevented his attendence.

We received on yesterday, a lengthy reply from Gov. Graham, and one from Col. Strange, and propose, on to-morrow, to publish the letters received from B. F. Moore, Esq., Hon. C. C. Clark, Col. Strange and Gov. Graham, in the Sentinel, which will be followed by such others as we may hereafter receive. The necessity of the above explanation will be made apparent, when the letters appear.

"Exultation over the elections, accompanied by threats of resentment, is just what the revolutionary leaders in Congress would desire to witness throughout the South, as an excuse for prosecuting their malignant schemes. It is, therefore, most desirable not only that the language of the press should be temperate and prudent, but that the bearing of the population should be such as to inspire trustfulness everywhere, and to disprove the misrepresentations of those heartless partisans, who, in persecuting the South as these [illegible] would do, are animated by the ignoble passion of vengeance on the one hand, and of selfish interest on the other."

We cannot too heartily commend the foregoing excellent counsel of the National Intelligencer. While our people are naturally disposed to regard the results of the recent elections as the harbingers of an era of better feeling and as an indication of a returning sense of reason, on the part of the North, we are happy to observe that there is no disposition to build extravagant calculations upon them, to abate their purpose to obey the laws, or to throw the slightest obstacle in the way of their operation.—They will continue to act with the same prudence, moderation and submission, that have characterized their conduct since the surrender, unaffected, so far as their action may go, by the events of the past week.—They feel more sensibly, if possible, now, than at any former period, that relief and deliverance must come to them, when it shall come, from the people of the North.—They will persevere in the quiet discharge of duty, placing their destiny and their hopes, where they belong, in the hands of Providence and of the awakened masses of the North, who, they are rejoiced to see, are not deaf to the suggestions of race, magnanimity and patriotism, nor blind to the dangers which threaten Constitutional liberty. Let us do and say nothing that can possibly be successfully tortured, by our enemies, into the charge that we are not worthy the trust and confidence which the "loyal" people of the great States have signally declared that they repose in us.

Laughing on the wrong side of the Mouth.—The effort of the little white Radical squad in this City, (it only numbers some eight or ten pale-faces,) to ridicule the meeting in this City, on Saturday, is itself very ridiculous. Poor fellows! They need something to amuse them, in view of the overwhelming defeat their friends have just recieved in the great States of the North. If the meeting, on Saturday, was a "funeral," it was appropriate. Radicalism is dead and it was meet to give it some sort of burial.

It is given out, we understand, that there is to be a Radical meeting to-morrow evening, at the Court House. There will not be ten native white citizens participating in it. It will be in mourning, literally,—hung in black. The Ex. P. G. will sing a dirge, the joint production of Font Taylord and Jos. William. Handy will be there as Undertaker, and Brodie will lead in prayer for the departed.

Raymond's paper, the New York Times, "gives it up," that New York will follow, next month, in the wake of Pennsylvania and Ohio.

Hon John Quincy Adams accepts, in an excellent and patriotic letter, the nomination for Governor of Massachusetts by the "Democrats and Conservative men" of that State.

The white vote in Alabama for the Convention amounts to 20,000; 2,000 against it; not voting 50,000.

THE DUTY OF THE HOUR.

No citizen is excusable to himself or to the country, for failing to exhibit an interest in public affairs at the present time.—Those especially, whom the people have heretofore advanced and honored, are bound, by every consideration of duty, to give the State the benefit of their counsel and of their best efforts to extricate her from her embarrassments and peril. The simple fact of present disfranchisement is no apology for reticence or for sullen indifference. This disability cannot last forever, and the time will come, when the people, in weighing the claims of future aspirants for promotion, will consider their services in this hour of their emergency.—Those who dodge now will be repudiated hereafter. Those who are timid, weak-kneed and nervous now, will have no right in the future to expect the favor of the masses. The people seek advice, they ask to be enlightened, they crave guidance and information; and every man of intelligence and prominence is without justification who withholds the expression of his views, whatever they may be.

Va. and East Tenn. R. R.—Just as the Stockholders of this Road were about to proceed, a few days since, to the election of a President of the Company for the ensuing year, they were served with a notice from the War Department, prohibiting the election until the Company's indebtedness to the government was discharged. This interference excited great indignation, the amount of the debt was at once pledged by wealthy and prominent gentlemen present, and a Committee appointed to wait upon the Post Commander at Lynchburg, through whom the order came, to ascertain whether an election could be proceeded with, upon payment of the amount. No satisfactory reply being vouchsafed, the election was deferred.

Commenting upon this most extraordinary proceeding, the Norfolk Virginian says:

"The corporation is in no manner political. It is a private company. It was an assembly of private citizens to attend to their private interests, involved in the affairs of a corporation, and in the discharge of their ordinary duties in electing a presiding officer they were abruptly prohibited from doing so by a military order. True, that the meeting was about to elect as their president General Mahone by a very large majority. True, that he had served with high distinction in the Confederate service. True that as a major general he is not yet pardoned by the Federal Executive. But it is equally true that he has extraordinary administrative talents in the management of railroads; that he has been absolutely reticent on the subject of politics, and that he was about to be elected by reason of these executive talents."

What the Late Elections Mean.—In almost every city, town and hamlet, all over the North, we hear of bonfires, salutes and rejoicings over the result of the recent elections.

The following extract from a speech of Mayor Hoffman, at an enthusiastic Democratic meeting at Tammany Hall, in the City of New York, shows what the late victories are understood to have accomplished.

"The result of these elections, in my judgment, will be the safety of the nation. It should be received by the Democracy of New York City and of the country in all moderation as the sign of the times, indicating that the great people of the country are putting their finger of warning upon the Radical disunionists. It should be received as a declaration that the moderate conservative men of the nation are to rule the nation. That extreme men on every side must, for the time being, stand aside, while the great mass of the conservative men of the country come up to save it. It is to be received as the declaration of the American people that the party whose policy it is to overthrow the Constitution of the country, to increase its debt and taxation, to overthrow its President and substitute in his place a revolutionary President, is to be put down under the feet of the great patriotic American people. It is to be received as the declaration of the people of the North that the policy inaugurated by that party at the South to place black men over white men cannot be and will not be sustained. (Long continued cheering.) It is to be received as a declaration that the people of the North are not willing within the States of this Union that there should be negro judges, negro magistrates, negro jurors, negro legislators, negro Congressmen—(loud cheering)—that the power and money of this government is not to be used to maintain within the limits of ten States at an expense of millions of dollars an army, the sole purpose of which is to elevate the black man above the white man. (Cheers.) That if within the limits of the Southern States the black man is entitled to the exercise of the right of suffrage, he is fit to govern himself, to take care of himself, and does not need a standing army to protect him; that if the black men of the South, numbering hundreds of thousands, are fit to walk up to the polls and vote down the white men, they do not need a Freedman's Bureau with millions of dollars at its back to educate, feed, and take care of them. (Laughter and applause.) It is to be taken as the declaration of the people of the American continent, that debt and taxation must be reduced; that there must be no increase of the paper currency; no more corrupt officials to corrupt the people. (Great applause.) It is to be received as the declaration of the American people that the American Constitution is to be the supreme law of the land—(applause) and that no rump Congress shall passlaws which they shall declare to be superior to the Constitution of the country. (Applause.) At the same time it is to be received as the declaration of the American people that there shall be under all circumstances a faithful adherence by the American people and American government to every one of those obligations incurred during the war for the preservation of the American Union."

Amusing.—To hear old Whigs like Gov. Worth, Mr. Pell, Mr. Gales, Gov. Graham, and Gov. Vance rejoicing over Democratic victories.—Standard.

Amusing, still more amusing, most amusing of all, that the Standard don't rejoice over Democratic victories which it used to do with so much gusto for twenty years, whenever it had an opportunity.—Old North State.

Impeachment Played Out.—A petition is going round for signatures, asking the Fortieth Congress to impeach Andrew Johnson without unnecessary delay. We rather think that impeachment is knocked on the head. The elections on Tuesday settled it. It is laid out flat on the radical platform, and it makes what the old crones call "a very party corpse."—N. Y. Herald.

Gov. Orr has addressed a letter to President Johnson, asking him to revoke General Canby's recent order on the subject of Juries. He says:

"To show the ruinous results, however, that will follow from this order, if it is allowed to be executed, I beg leave to call your attention to the matter of registration in this State.

There are white majorities in but six districts. In two districts the numbers are about equal. In each of the remaining twenty-three districts of the State—there being altogether thirty one—the registration shows a colored majority. In Charleston the colored majority is 1,812, the registered whites being 3,286, and the blacks 5,098. Of the whites 118 were unable to sign their names; of the colored, 2,866. In Charleston and Columbia a larger number of the latter class of persons can read and write, than in any other portion of the State; a very much larger number, because they have had facilities before and since emancipation of obtaining some education not enjoyed by their class in all the rural region of the State, to which I shall advert more particularly hereafter. In organizing a jury in Charleston, therefore, assuming that all have paid their taxes, this proportion would give nearly eight colored jurors to four whites, and five of these eight would not be able to sign their names. In Beaufort, Georgetown, Colleton, Berkeley, and other districts, the showing is even worse. Partial returns from Beaufort indicate that there are 2,550 colored, and but sixty-five white voters registered. This proportion would furnish but one white man to every fourth jury. Of the colored voters registered in the rural districts I estimate that not more than five per cent of the whole number are able to read and write, and very many of them have not intelligence enough to count one hundred. In Georgetown district there are 418 whites and 3,413 colored voters registered. One white man might perchance be drawn upon each jury, and in all probability not one of the remaining eleven colored men would be able to read and write.

To sum up, there will be in twenty three districts of this State a majority of colored jurors for the trial of all classes of cases, civil and criminal, and only five per cent. of their number will be able to read or write. Does any country which has established the right of trial by jury, fail, by its legislation, to secure a proper degree of intelligence among the jurors? These rules, if applied to the State courts, will, I presume, be likewise applied to the Federal Court; and the proportion upon such Federal juries will be—in Charleston, eight colored to four whites, in Columbia, nine colored to three whites, and in Greenville, eight white to four colored jurors. These are the three points where the United States Court sits in South Carolina.

Can these colored people discharge the duties of jurors either to the United States, or to the State, to the litigants or to public justice? With such instruments, will not the effort to administer justice be a mockery? Now, if the order had provided that no person shall be allowed to sit upon a jury who is unable to read or write, or if a property qualification had been annexed, or if in cases, civil or criminal, in which colored persons may be interested, a certain proportion of the jury should consist of their own color, it might not have been objected to seriously; but in its present bearings the order is to lead to results which must be universally deplored by those who desire to see even and exact justice meted out to all men. Nearly all of the litigation, certainly all of the important litigation, on the civil side of the court, is between white citizens, and involves intricate issues of law and fact, as well as sums great and small. What protection can the white, or even the colored man himself, have, if his case is to be decided by a jury made up of persons possessing so little intelligence that they are unable to read, write, or cipher? With what satisfaction would a Northern claimant regard an adverse decision made by a jury, a majority of whom were colored, when the same case, measured by intelligence and submitted to the judgment of men of experience and education, would, perhaps, have been decided in his favor? Suppose that he is a patentee whose rights have been infringed, and whose interests—involved to the amount of half a million of dollars—are dependent upon the keen discrimination or an intelligent jury called upon to determine some material difference between machinery or processes of manufacture; is it not preposterous to suppose that a colored jury, constituted as I have described, possess the requisite qualifications to render a just and intelligent verdict? Yet this is but one of the many classes of cases, which the Northern as well as the Southern man will be compelled to submit to the judgment of the ignorant and unwise jurors created by order No. 89."

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Drugs, Medicines, Paints, Oils, &c.: Jordan & Carr, Petersburg, Va. This old and well established firm needs no recommendation to the North Carolina Trade.

Railroad, Gas and Bank Stocks for sale: Jno. G. Williams & Co., Bankers and Brokers, Fayetteville Street.

Labor-Saving Pump, Agricultural Ware-House, &c.: Mitchell, Allen & Co.

We invite special attention to the lengthy and attractive announcement of Thomas Smith, No. 23, Sycamore St., Petersburg, Va. Mr. Smith is one of the most enterprising and liberal Merchants in the country, and he offers wholesale inducements equal to those of the best Houses further North. Read his column.

Gold Mine, Mills and Factory for sale on the 14th. of November: O. H. Dockery and F. G. L. Barringer, Commissioners. These embrace the interest of the late S. H. Christian, in the Swift Island Gold Mining Co., &c.

RALEIGH & GASTON RAILROAD,—NEW SCHEDULE.—A new schedule goes into operation on this Road to day. The mail train, going North, will leave at 10. 10 o'clock, A. M., as at present, and reach Weldon at 3. 15 P. M. Coming South, it will leave Weldon at 10. 45 A. M. and arrive here at 3. 50 P. M. This arrangement suits the press admirably, and, doubtless, will please the public. We hope that the schedules on the other Roads will be made to conform.

HEBREW FESTIVAL.—On Sunday evening, at 6 o'clock, began the festival of "Succoth, or Feast of the Tabernacle," which, continuing two days, closes at sunset this evening. According to Jewish chronology, it is held on the 15th. of the month Tisri, which answers partly to our month of September.

CHINA.—Rev. Mr. Wood, a member of the North Carolina Conference, and late Missionary of the M. E. Church, South, to China, delivered in the Methodist Church, on Sunday night last, to a very large audience, a discourse upon the religious condition of China. The discourse was listened to with much interest, and, without previous notice, a handsome hat collection was taken up for the Mission.

Gov. WORTH left this City, on yesterday, to meet Gen. Canby and Gov. Orr, at Columbia, S. C. on to-morrow, agreeably to Gen. Canby's request.

ENERGY.—Messrs. W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co. commenced moving, after business hours, last evening, and this morning are in their magnificent new store, ready to serve the public.

DINNER, TABLEAUX, CHARADES.—We make our acknowledgments to the ladies at Henderson, connected with the Episcopal Church, for complimentary tickets to a Dinner to be given by them, on Wednesday, for the benefit of the Church at that place, and to an entertainment of Tableaux and Charades the same evening, for the same praiseworthy purpose. The price of the former will be $1, and admission to the latter will be 75 cents. We have no doubt but that the dinner will be excellent and the exhibition pleasing and attractive. Raleigh must be represented.

THE FAIR at Henderson commences to-morrow. Those of our citizens, who may wish to visit it, will bear in mind that they will be allowed to go and return over the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad for one fare.—The trip will be a pleasant one, and we hope that a goodly number from Raleigh will show their interest in the laudable enterprise of our Granville friends by their presence.

ACCOMMODATION SCHEDULE.—An accommodation train for the Henderson Fair will run on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, as follows:

Leave Raleigh at 6.30 A. M.
Arrive Henderson " 10.30 "
Leave Henderson " 4.30 P. M.
Arrive Raleigh " 8.25 "

"Good men are assembling now, and shaking hands, as men who begin to see daylight, security, and peace. There is no pray, in a political sense, among the soldiers in this army of reform. There is no purpose to go back one step from the platform of the Crittenden resolutions, nor from the policy of the President of the United States. As the war was waged for the Constitution, as interpreted on both sides, North and South, so now the fruits of the war will be maintained, in the final overthrow of slavery and of the useless dogma of secession. But the States must live; the rightful powers of the States must live; the civil law must be paramount in normal times; the legitimate powers of the President must be conceded; class legislation must cease; Congressional oligarchies must go by the board; satrapy must be abolished; the negro must subside into the citizen, subject to all legal and social regulations; the demoralization created by the war and prolonged by the agitators must give place to quiet and legitimate rule. Then we shall go back to the first annual message of President Johnson; then we shall have swung round the circle. All those precious things are coming fast. Let us be firm, active, magnanimous, and patient. So we shall learn wisdom and gain great strength in the glorious days of a regenerated country that are even now upon us. And to the Great Father of all good be the honor and glory, for surely He is ordering all things for the best, and far beyond our deserts.—Truly the nation has been in great peril.—N. Y. Cor. Nat. Intel.

INCENDIARY SPEECH OF HUNNICUTT.—As an indication of the animus of the radical party in Virginia, Hunnicutt, who is its acknowledged leader there, said in a speech in Charles City county a few days since that they had nothing to fear if a war of races should occur. He reviewed the results of registration in each of the Southern States, showing the negroes their physicial preponderance in the Gulf States and South Carolina. He said he had no report of the relative strength of the two races in North Carolina; but in Virgina the white majority is only thirteen thousand. Hunnicutt and his set number twenty-five thousand, and if they only number thirteen thousand each one of them would go with the negroes.—They were bound to make common cause with them. "Again," said he to the negroes, "you have no property. The white race owns houses and lands. Some of you are old and feeble and cannot carry the musket, but can apply the torch to the dwellings of your enemies." This sentiment was boisterously applauded.

THE RADICALS DUBIOUS ABOUT A CANDIDATE FOR THE PRESIDENCY.—Judging from the opinions of recognized leaders of the radical party, openly expressed since the late elections, the question as to who will be their candidate for the Presidency has been effectually set at rest by the present conservative revival. Hitherto there has been little doubt entertained that Chief Justice Chase would be the radical candidate for President; but within the past day or two he seems to have lost ground amazingly, especially among the leading politicians of his own State. Quite a number of prominent and influential radicals are now here, and they almost unanimously agree that General Grant is the only man the party should nominate for the Presidency next fall, and several republican members of Congress who are now in the city have expressed their agreement in this opinion.—Wash. Cor. N. Y. Herald.

The Republicans of Ohio never conducted a more strenuous campaign than they have in this election. It was a boat which carried Chief-Justice Chase and all his political fortunes. Unless he could carry his own State he could not expect the Republican nomination; and the loss of negro suffrage loses the State for him, for he is the leading representative of that principle. So deep was his personal stake in the result, that he has spent the last few weeks in Ohio manipulating the wires, and stimulating his followers to do their very utmost. He will now have an opportunity to meditate on the vanity of human expectations.—N. Y. World.

A FALSEHOOD PUBLICLY UTTERED.—In his speech at Albany, General Sickles said: "The conditions imposed upon the vanquished cannot fairly be stigmatized as oppressive, since they only assimilate the institutions of the South to those of the other States."

This speech was made since the Ohio elections took place. It is therefore not unbecoming to say that General Sickles told a wilful falsehood.—Rich. Dispatch.

TORCH-LIGHT PROCESSION PROHIBITED IN SAVANNAH.

SAVANNAH, Oct. 14, M.

A Republican meeting, advertised for 4 P. M. to-day, and a torch-light procession afterwards, are indefinitely postponed, in compliance with the following proclamation of Mayor Anderson:

"Whereas it is proper, in the present excited state of the public mind, that prompt measures be taken for the preservation of the public peace of the community, and,

Whereas, From information given me as Mayor, I have reasons to apprehend that gatherings and processions at night, in the streets of Savannah, would be likely to result in riot and conflagration;

I do, therefore, issue this proclamation, forbidding any such assemblage or procession in the streets or other thoroughfare after night fall, within the limits of the city, without special permission of the Mayor. And I do hereby request all orderly and well disposed persons to aid the authorities in the preservation of the peace and good order of the city.

(Signed.) EDWARD C. ANDERSON, Mayor of Savannah.

Garibaldi has named his son Menotti Generalissimo of the Insurgents.

It is reported that the insurgents have been driven across the frontier, by the Papal forces, and compelled to surrender their arms to the Italians.

DEATH OF REV. DR. IVES,—SHANES' COMMITTEE, &C.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14, M.

Maj. Mat. S. Ward, Editor of the Panola (Miss.) Star, is dead.

The Committee for the investigation of the treatment of Union prisoners sits in Boston until the meeting of Congress.

Dr. L. S. Ives, formerly Bishop of North Carolina, is dead—aged 71 years.

RICHMOND REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

RICHMOND, Oct. 14—P. M.

The City Republican Convention met on the Capitol Square to-day and nominated J. W. Hunnicutt, Judge John C. Underwood and James Morrisey, whites, and Lewis Lindsey and Job Cox, blacks, as candidates for the Convention.

The meeting was one of the largest ever held on the Square. A greater portion of the colored people were present. The Tobacco Factories and other large establishments, where negroes are employed, had to close for the day.

There were fewer whites than usual present.

Each candidate, except Underwood, who was absent, accepted.

The speeches were of a violent character,—Morrisey, an Irishman, declaring that he would vote in Convention to disfranchise every foreigner that aided the rebellion, while Hunnicutt favored not only disfranchising all whom Congress had disfranchised, but all Ministers of the Gospel and Editors who ever favored secession or the "rebellion."

Gen. Schofield returned on yesterday. His visit to Washington will not change the plan of reconstruction in this State.

A Card will be published to-morrow, by the moderate Republicans, cautioning parties against pledging themselves to support the ticket nominated to-day. Intelligent and decent candidates will be announced at once.

The Conservatives will hold a meeting this week.

DRY GOODS.

NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!!

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS FOR 1867.

Old Prices Reached the City and Stopped at

A. CREECH'S,
R. SMITH'S CORNER,
Fayetteville Street.

I AM NOW RECEIVING MY FALL AND WINTER Stock of

Staple and Fancy Dry Goods,

And I can say, with safety, that I have one among the largest and most complete stocks that has ever been brought to this City, either before or since the war,—embracing almost any and everything suitable for Ladies' and Gentlemen's wear.

CALICOES, 10, 12½, 15, and 18 cents per yard.

FRENCH MERINOS, 75 cts. to $1,25 per yard.

DELAINES, POPLINS, and a great variety of other Dress Goods, embracing all the new novelties of the season, and will be sold cheap enough to insure sales.

BROWN DOMESTICS, 12½, 15 and 20 cts. per yard.

BLEACHED DOMESTICS, 12½, 15, 20 and 25 cts. per yard, and all other goods in proportion.

Also, the largest and most varied stock of

CLOTHS,
CASSIMERES,
SATINETS,
TWEEDS, AND KENTUCKY JEANS

I ever offered to the trade in this City, both as to price and quality.

Also a very fine assortment of White and Colored FLANNELS,

LADIES' CLOAKS,
BREAKFAST SHAWLS,
SQUARE AND LONG SHAWLS,

which will be sold at prices to suit my customers.

Ladies', Misses' and Children's TRIMMED AND UNTRIMMED HATS,—new styles, from 50 cents to $4,00 each.

Boots and Shoes, Boots and Shoes.

The largest and best stock I ever brought to the City, consisting, in part, of J. Miles & Sons' make, and others of equally high standing.

Ladies' Pegged Balmorals, from $1 to $2.

Ladies Sewed Balmorals, from $1,50 to $3,50.

CREECH'S is the place to come to buy your Boots and Shoes.

Hats, Hats, Hats,

From 75 cts. to $4,00. Don't stop until you come to CREECH'S to buy your Hats. In fact, I think I can meet the expectations of all my customers and the public generally, both as to price and quality of ALL Goods.

Now a few words to my customers and friends: You see a great many different styles of advertisements. Some say they are in "luck again;" some say they have "hit the nail on the head;" some "selling out at cost;" some to "make room for a new stock;" some one thing and some another. But allow me to say, whether I am in luck, or whether I hit the nail on the head, or whether I missed the nail entirely, or failed to advertise "selling out at cost," I have sold out my old stock, (while they are still hammering away over their old stock,) and have been North and bought a new stock. My goods are now in store, and opened for inspection.

COME AND LOOK AT THEM.

I told my customers, six months ago, that I would sell goods as cheap as Yankee, Jew or Gentile, and I think I have made my word good.

I told the people to come to Creech's to buy their goods, that I would serve them right. Hundreds have come, and they are still coming from this and adjoining Counties. And I here take the privilege to say I think they have shown their good judgment.

Don't forget to come to

A. CREECH'S,
Sept. 12—32-tf Fayetteville Street.

DAILY SENTINEL.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 15, 1867.

THE DYING SOLDIER.

[Col. Christie, of North Carolina, fell mortally wounded at the battle of Gettysburg, while gallantly leading his men against the enemy's breastworks. He was taken to Winchester, where he was nursed tenderly until his death. He longed to see his young wife, his darling Lizzie, but when she reached Winchester he was dead. His last words were, "Kiss me for Lizzie."—Extract of a letter.]

"The bravest are the tenderest,
The loving are the darting."

I am dying—is she coming?—throw the window open wide,
Is she coming? Oh! I love her more than all the world beside.
In her young and tender beauty, must, oh! must she feel this loss?
Saviour, hear my poor petition, teach her how to bear this cross.
Help her to be calm and patient when I moulder in the dust,
Let her say and feel, my Father, that by ways are true and just.
Is she coming? Go and listen—I would see her face once more;
I would hear her speaking to me ere life's fevered dream is o'er;
I would fold her to my bosom, look into her soft bright eye,
I would tell her how I love her, kiss her once before I die.
Is she coming? Oh! 'tis evening, and my darling comes not still.
Lift the curtain—it grows darker—it is sunset on the hill,
All the evening dews are falling—I am cold—the light is gone.
Is she coming? Softly, softly comes death's stillest footstepsone;
I am going—come and kiss me—kiss me for my darling wife;
Take for her my parting blessing—take the last fond kiss of life.
Tell her I will wait to greet her where the good and lovely are,
In that home untouched by sorrow, tell her she must meet me there.
Is she coming? Lift the curtain—let me see the failing light
Oh! I want to live to see her, surely she will come to-night;
Surely ere the daylight dieth, I will fold her to my breast;
With her head upon my bosom, calmly I could sink to rest;
It is hard to die without her; look! I think she's coming now;
I can almost feel her kisses on my faded cheek and brow;
I can almost hear her whisper, feel her breath upon my cheek.
Hark! I hear the front door open; is she coming? did she speak?
No. Well drop the curtain softly—I will see her face no more,
Till I see it smiling on me on the bright and better shore.
Tell her she must come and meet me in that Eden land of light;
Tell her I'll be waiting for her where there is no death, no night;
Tell her that I called her darling, blessed her with my dying breath;
Come and kiss me for my Lizzie—tell her love conquereth death.

RICHMOND, Va.

No STAMP ON IT.—A good joke came off recently at a court house. A person living a short distance out of the village is in the habit of frequently coming into town and drinking to inebriation. At such seasons he is apt to call on his Honor, Judge M——. Recently, he made one of his visits, became decidedly tipsy, called upon Judge M——, and desired the Judge to write him a pledge, asserting his intention to cease drinking. His Honor wrote the pledge, as desired, and the tipsy individual affixed his name thereto. He then desired to have the pledge that he might take it home and exhibit it to his wife. His Honor thought he was himself the proper custodian of the important agreement, but yielded to the solicitations of the man, at the same time assuring him that if he broke the contract, and appeared before him again in a state of intoxication, he would have him locked up. A week elapsed and the Judge was confronted by the same man, as tipsy as aforetimes. 'How is this?' 'Judge M,' said the tipsy fellow, 'you think I am a fool? I know what I am about. I'll show you if I am a fool!' and he drew forth his wallet from his pocket, took out his pledge, unfolded its worn creases, and holding it up triumphantly, exclaimed: "Will you just show me the U. S. Internal Revenue stamp on that agreement?" The Judge caved.

The base ball fever is widely spread. A little six-year-old was sitting in repose upon the parlor steps, with a base ball in his hand, gazing intently at the moon. "Pa," he suddenly spoke, "is there only one man in the moon?" "That's the tradition, my son; the man in the moon was the only inhabitant of that bright world we have ever heard of." After a moment's pause he remarked, with a sigh: "He must be lonesome, pa, and no one to play base ball with!"

At no moment of difficulty does a husband know his utter helplessness, and draw so close to his wife's side for comfort and assistance, as when he wants a button sewed on his shirt collar!

A six per cent dividend on this line will save the people from taxation $295,000 per annum.

Under a resolution of the Stockholders of the N. C. Railroad, all Freights are to go via Goldsboro', unless otherwise specially directed by shippers.

When at Goldsboro', you are only sixty miles from the shipping point, instead of one hundred and sixty via Weldon, and eighty via Wilmington. Our Steamers are equal to any other line, both for Freight and Travel. Time as short as by any other, and as cheap.

THIS is the Line

To ESCOURAGE. You get dispatch, safety, but one handling, and less Railroad transportation, than by any other line.

Three-fourths of the PROFITS made on this line go directly into the STATE TREASURY, and if encouraged, you will soon be relieved from heavy taxation at least two hundred and ninety-five thousand dollars.

The Railroads composing the N. C. GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY LINE have recently agreed to unite in a

GREAT THROUGH LINE

Route to all the Northern Markets, on equal terms and charges, via our own ports to and from the North.

Cars run through to all points without breaking bulk.

A Cheap Cotton Press.

FARMERS, BEFORE YOU BUY A PRESS OR build a Screw, enquire into the merits of the

GODWIN COTTON PRESS.

Hear what the following reliable gentlemen say:

I have seen Mr. J. H. Godwin's Cotton Press work at Mr. P. E. Smith's plantation, and it does all that he says it does in his advertisement and more. I think it superior to any other mode of packing Cotton, and saves both time and labor.

W. R. SMITH.

I have used the above mentioned Press, and consider it the best I ever saw for packing Cotton.

THOS. J. VAUGHAN.

I have packed about 100 bales of Cotton with Mr. J. H. Godwin's Cotton Press, and take pleasure in recommending it to the farmers as a great labor-saving machine. It does not cost more than half as much as a Screw, and is worth twice as much.

It is so convenient, and takes fewer hands to do as much work as a Screw. I would pay the price of a Press rather than allow a man to put up a screw on my place for nothing.

D. EDMONDSON.

I have used the above mentioned Cotton Press, and it does better than a Screw. Takes less hands, does not waste Cotton, and is much cheaper

J. H. CURRY,
Sup't W. H. Smith's Plantation.

I have packed about 70 bales with Godwin's Cotton Press, and am certain it is the best, cheapest, most compact and durable Press in existence, costing only half, at first, and lasting twice as long as a Screw.

PETER E. SMITH.

I have never seen the Cotton Press of Mr. Jno. H. Godwin at work, but have no doubt, from the certificates of the gentlemen above, that it performs all they say of it. I know them to be gentlemen of character and veracity, and that their statements are entitled to credit.

RICHARD H. SMITH.

The last name is one of our most honorable and respectable citizens, well known as a former member of the Legislature. I offer this PRESS as combining more advantages for packing than any now in use: it is adapted to large or small farms, and is so simple and cheap, that any good mechanic can build it. It is well adapted to

WATER-POWER.

It is 40 or 11 feet wide, 3 feet and 3 inches thick; top of frame above ground, 16 feet; high-est point of Lever, 18 or 19 feet. The platform on which the bale is turned out, is 10 feet above ground.

Length of box, 10 feet in the clear.

Length of bale 5 feet, by 2 feet 4 inches. Weight 500 or 600 lbs. It is put up flat against the Lint Room, thereby preventing the scattering of the Cotton and need of bank'g.

The Press is chiefly built of scantlings.

The Inventor has spared no pains in his experiments to make it practicable, convenient and cheap. I charge $25 for a Single Right.

The total cost, including cover and everything, is about $150. Much of that, farmers are not in the habit of including as cost.

I think I can sell County rights at about $10 by the hundred.

THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER.

This Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine

IS OFFERED TO THE

Public as a ready, certain and speedy means of preventing

LARGE CONFLAGRATIONS.

Until the invention of the

Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine,

Fires have been met by means too slow, too late and too cumbrous. But few persons in this country have the advantage of large hand or Steam Fire Engines, and those few often suffer a total loss of their property by reason of the great length of time consumed in sending for and getting them into working order.

BUT NOT SO WITH THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER, which, being kept charged and standing in your House, Store or Factory, is always Ready for Instant Service.

The fire can be extinguished and your property saved without loss or damage, or even an alarm of Fire.

The first few minutes of conflagration decide the fate of the property; "a little fire is quickly put out, which, being suffered, rivers cannot quench."

THE EXTINGUISHER, being very simple in its operation, and entirely self-propelling, requires no previous skill or practice to operate it, and being so light, portable and self-acting, is capable of being used in any place, by any person, male or female.

It puts out all fires, arising from whatever cause. You are saved from the immense water damage caused by large Engines.

You can effect insurance on your property

At Lower Rates,

if protected by the Extinguisher.

The Extinguisher is no humbug, as thousands of good men in Europe and America will testify.

I have already put these little Engines into some of our best Factories and largest Schools in N. C.

No House, Store, Factory, or Corporation is safe without them.

The price is as nothing, compared with the protection they afford.

SUPPLEMENT TO THE STEVENS-SHERMAN-SHELLABARGER BILL.

AN ACT supplemental to an act entitled an act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, passed March 2, 1867, and to facilitate restoration.

Be it enacted, &c., That before the first day of September, 1867, the commanding general in each district defined by the act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, approved March 2, 1867, shall cause a registration to be made of the male citizens of the United States, twenty-one years of age, and upwards, resident in each county or parish in the State or States included in his district, which registration will include only those persons who are qualified to vote for delegates by the act aforesaid, and who shall have taken and subscribed the following oath or affirmation:

"I, ——, do solemnly swear, or affirm, in the presence of Almighty God, that I am a citizen of the State of ——, that I have resided in said State for —— months next preceding this day, and now reside in the county of ——, or the parish of ——, in said State, as the case may be; that I am 21 year old; that I have not been disfranchised for participation in any rebellion or civil war against the United States, nor for felony committed against the laws of any State or of the United States; that I have never been a member of any State Legislature, or held any executive or judicial office in any State, and afterwards engaged in insurrection and rebellion against the United States, and given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I have never taken an oath as a member of Congress of the United States, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, and afterwards engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I will faithfully support the Constitution and obey the laws of the United States, and will, to the best of my ability, encourage others so to do. So help me God."

which oath or affirmation may be administered by any registering officer.

Sec. 2. That after the completion of the registration hereby provided for in any State at such time and place therein as the commanding general shall appoint and direct, of which at least thirty day's public notice shall be given, an election shall be held of delegates to a convention for the purpose of establishing a constitution and civil government for such State loyal to the Union; said convention in each State, except Virginia, to consist of the same number of members as the most numerous branch of the State Legislature of such State in the year 1860, to be apportioned among the several districts, counties, or parishes of such State by the commanding general, giving to each representation in the ratio of voters registered as aforesaid as nearly as may be. The convention in Virginia shall consist of the same number of members as represented the territory now constituting Virginia in the most numerous branch of the Legislature of said State in the year 1860, to be apportioned as aforesaid.

Sec. 3. That at such election the registered voters of each State shall vote for or against a convention to form a constitution thereof under this act. Those voting in favor of such a convention shall have written or printed on the ballots by which they vote for delegates as aforesaid, the words "for a convention;" and those voting against such a convention shall have written or printed on such ballots the words "against a convention." The persons appointed to superintend said election, and to make return of the votes given thereat, as herein provided, shall count and make return of the votes given for and against such convention; and the commanding general, to whom the same shall have been returned, shall ascertain and declare the total vote in each State for and against a convention. If a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, then a convention shall be held, as hereinafter provided; but if a majority of said votes shall be against a convention, then no convention shall be held under this act: Provided, That such convention shall not be held unless a majority of all such registered voters shall have voted on the question of holding such convention.

Sec. 4. That the commanding general of each district shall appoint such loyal officers or persons as may be necessary, not exceeding three in each election district, in any State, to make and complete the registration, superintend the election, and make return to him of the votes, lists of voters and of the persons elected as delegates by a plurality of the votes cast at said election; and upon receiving said returns he shall open the same, ascertain the persons elected as delegates according to the returns of the officers who conducted said election, and make proclamation thereof; and if a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, the commanding general, within sixty days from the date of election, shall notify the delegates to assemble in convention at a time and place to be mentioned in the notification, and said convention, when organized, shall proceed to frame a Constitution and civil government according to the provisions of this act, and the act to which it is supplementary; and when the same shall have been so framed, said Constitution shall be submitted by the convention for ratification to the persons registered under the provisions of this act, at an election to be conducted by the officers or persons appointed by the commanding general as hereinbefore provided, and to be held after the expiration of thirty days from the date of notice thereof to be given by said convention, and the returns thereof shall be made to the commanding general of the district,

Sec. 5. That if, according to said returns, the constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the votes of the registered electors qualified as herein specified, cast at said election, at least one-half of all the registered voters voting upon the question of such ratification, the president of the convention shall transmit a copy of the same, duly certified, to the President of the United States, who shall forthwith transmit the same to Congress, if then in session, and if not in session, then immediately upon its next assembling; and if it shall moreover appear to Congress that the election was one at which all the registered and qualified electors in the State had an opportunity to vote freely and without restraint, fear or the influence of fraud, and if Congress shall be satisfied that such constitution meets the approval of a majority of the qualified electors in the State, and if the said constitution shall be declared by Congress to be in conformity with the provisions of the act to which this is supplementary, and the other provisions of said act shall have been complied with, and the said constitution shall be approved by Congress, the State shall be declared entitled to representation, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom as herein provided.

Sec. 6. That all elections in the States mentioned in the said "Act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," shall, during the operation of said act, be by ballot; and all officers making the said registration of voters and conducting said elections shall, before entering upon the discharge of their duties, subscribe an oath faithfully to perform the duties of their said office, and the oath prescribed by the act approved July 2, 1862, entitled "An act to prescribe an oath of office:" Provided, That if any person shall knowingly and falsely take and subscribe any oath in this act prescribed, such person so offending, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be subject to the pains, penalties and disabilities which by law are provided for the punishment of the crime of wilful and corrupt perjury.

Sec. 7. That all expenses incurred by the several commanding generals, or by virtue of any orders issued or appointments made by them under or by virtue of this act, shall be paid out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Sec. 8. That the convention for each State shall prescribe the fees, salary, and compensation to be paid to all delegates and other officers and agents herein authorized or necessary to carry into effect the purposes of this act, not herein otherwise provided for, and shall provide for the levy and collection of such taxes on the property in such State as may be necessary to pay the same.

Sec. 9. That the word "article" in the sixth section of the act to which this is supplementary shall be construed to mean "section."

FOR

DRIVING COTTON GINS.

It is SIMPLE, STRONG and COMPACT, and can be easily put together. We sold a large number last season and the demand is constantly increasing.

The following letter from Col. Hoon, of Surry County, speaks for itself:

* * * * * It is with much pleasure that I state, your Gin Horse Power bought last season proved an entire success.

I applied a 13 feet lever and 6 feet band wheel to a 45 saw Gin, and one pair of ordinary mules which improved on constant work, and with slow gait of team gave sufficiency of speed; a capacity to gin about 4,000 per day.

The wear and tear in ginning 60 bales of cotton is not perceivable—do not think it could be estimated at 2 per cent. It was put up and geared by one of the best machinists in the State, who pronounced it superior to any patent he had seen; also, several gentlemen familiar by long use of gins, have examined it and decided to lay aside their old powers and order this pattern of you.

Yours, most respectfully, WM. H. HOOD.
